

I wish to register my opposition to limiting or prohibiting satellite subscription radio from providing locally oriented service information such as the XM Instant Traffic & Weather channels. The ability to obtain traffic and weather information, before driving into a particular geographic area, makes it possible to choose routes that avoid trouble spots.